PUBLIC NOTICE

Public Notice regarding the Change of Name of the Official Journal

This is to formally inform the public, academic community, previous and prospective authors, and all concerned authorities that the official Student-run-journal of Law Centre-II, Faculty of Law, University of Delhi, has undergone a title change to ensure a distinct identity and avoid any potential nomenclature conflicts.

Old Title of Journal - Journal for Law and Justice

New Title of Journal - Delhi Journal for Law and Justice

Affiliation - Law Centre-II, University of Delhi

Important Information for Stakeholders:

1. For Authors: All future submissions, citations, and correspondence should strictly refer to the new title: Delhi Journal for Law and Justice.
2. Validity: All previous volumes published under the old name remain valid except change in the Name of the Journal and part of the journal's official archive. This change is strictly administrative regarding the title and does not affect the journal's editorial standards or its affiliation with the University of Delhi.
3. Authorities: Concerned indexing agencies, libraries, and regulatory bodies are requested to update their records to reflect this change.

This notice is issued to prevent any confusion or trademark conflicts with similarly named publications and to safeguard the academic integrity of our institution's contributions to legal scholarship.

For any queries regarding this transition, please contact the Editorial Board at Law Centre-II.
